

My Precious Lord

Brent Helming

The sound of sweet devotion
Flowing from my lips
Saying that You are my heart's desire
Object of my affection
Your love is oh so real
And I want to let You know

You are my precious Lord
You are the One I adore

In You there's joy and laughter
Pleasures for evermore
Reflections of Your righteousness and grace
My heart cannot contain it this happiness inside
It makes me wanna sing

You are my precious Lord
You are the One I adore
You are my precious Lord
You are the One I adore

What else can I do
But give to You my pure devotion
What else can I say that will communicate
My love for You oh my love for You Lord

You are my precious Lord
You are the One I adore
You are my precious Lord
You are the One I adore
